HAIL TO THE BAND

1955 marks the first season for the Wakefield High School Marching Band. Today's appearance is the second this fall, but the first on our own field. In the organization, under the direction of Gerald Lewis, are fifty instrumentalists who have been members of the high school concert band since Wakefield's beginning three years ago. The band is outfitted in new green and gray uniforms which incorporate the school colors of green and white. The half-time presentation today includes a medley of popular songs and a marching demonstration.
